

Notice of the Director no. 2/2013

Title:

Stipulation of Rules for Autumn Terms of State Final Examinations at IPS FSV UK

In effect from: 10. 5. 2013

In Prague on 30.4.2013

PhDr. Petr Jüptner, Ph.D.

Director of the Institute

Performing state examinations in the autumn (September term) is possible only on the following grounds:

- a) a student studied abroad within an exchange study stay organized by the faculty in the summer semester before the state examination,
- b) a student was long-term ill in the summer semester before the state examination,
- c) a student performs a state examination at FSV UK in another study discipline in the same (summer) term.

A student who intends to perform the state examination in the autumn term must apply for this possibility by 15 May of the given year at the latest and must document all the corresponding facts.

Director of the Institute will decide on the request and in the case the request has been accepted, he will ask the guarantor for the announcement of the date of the state examination.

A student who intends to perform the state examination in the autumn term must have all his/her study requirements fulfilled by 30 June of the given year and his/her diploma thesis submitted no later than July 31. The notice herein is pursued by supplementations made by the guarantor of the study discipline of Political Science and International Relations and the study discipline of Political Science.
